

Siskiyou Media Council
presents...

Two time Grammy nominee

Mark Levine in concert

Pianist, author, educator, composer, and record producer Mark Levine brings his world class music to Weed in a two-concert series to benefit Siskiyou Media Council and MCTV15. Reception, piano clinic, and both performances will be held "upstairs" at the Mount Shasta Brewery in Weed, Ca.

Saturday, October 8th

Artist's Reception
(advance ticket purchase only)
5:30—6:45pm

Concert
7—9pm

Sunday, October 9th

Piano Clinic, all levels
11am—1pm

Concert
2—4pm

Greg D'Augelli
on bass

Bryan Bowman
on drums

Saturday, October 8th

- Artist's Reception and Concert: $25
- Concert only: $18

Sunday, October 9th

- Clinic or Concert only: $18
- Clinic and Concert: $30

Siskiyou Media Council

Mark has played with many familiar jazz luminaries over the years, including Woody Shaw, Joe Henderson, Bobby Hutcherson, Blue Mitchell, Moacir Santos, Freddie Hubbard, Cal Tjader, Milt Jackson, Dizzy Gillespie, Benny Golson, Tito Puente, Chet Baker, and Art Farmer. Mark's Jazz Theory Book was named #1 choice in Jazz Times Magazine's "recommended Jazz Library," and his Jazz Piano Book is the best-selling jazz instruction book of all time.

Tickets and Information

Call Siskiyou Media Council @ 530.938.5285 or Deborra Brannon @ 530.598.4270

Visit www.mctv15.org to download ticket order forms and directions to the Mount Shasta Brewery venue

(Note: Discounts offered for registered students, Siskiyou Media Council members, and MCTV15 producers)